By the Order of the Preſident and Council.

ROBERT CHARLES, Secr.

GOD Save the KING.

To the King's Moſt Excellent MAJESTY.

The Humble Addreſs of the Commiſſion of the late General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland, met and convened by Appointment of the ſaid Aſſembly this 10th Day of Auguſt, 1737.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt Faithful and moſt Loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders now aſſembled in a Quarterly Meeting of the Commiſſion of the late National Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland, humbly beg Leave to take this Occaſion of offering to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere and unanimous Congratulations on the joyful Event of the Birth of a Princeſs, the firſt born Child of their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales.

As the Church of Scotland has never failed even in the moſt difficult and dangerous Occaſions, to give convincing Proofs of her Loyalty to your Majeſty, and of her ſteady Attachment to the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your auguſt Houſe: And as it is a Part of our daily Prayers to Almighty God, That your Majeſty may be long preſerved for a Bleſſing to your People; and that your Majeſty's Royal Offspring may, to the End of Time, poſſeſs the Throne of theſe Realms, it cannot but fill our Hearts with Joy and Thankfulneſs, when we ſee our Wiſhes, and Prayers, and thoſe of all your good Subjects, ſo far accompliſhed, as gives us the Proſpect of the further Increaſe of your Royal Family, and the Continuance of the Proteſtant Succeſſion therein.

We the Miniſters and Elders of this Church have taken many Occaſions to expreſs our Loyalty and Affection for your Majeſty and your Royal Family; and we beg Leave at this Time to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are thoroughly perſuaded, it is both our Duty and Intereſt, to ſtand ſo affected, and to demean ourſelves accordingly, as the Settlement of the Crown of theſe Realms upon your Majeſty and Royal Family, is the greateſt Security, under God, of our own National Eſtabliſhment of Religion, and Liberty in all your Kingdoms, and the Proteſtant Intereſt in general; and it is, and ſhall be our Care to cultivate and promote the like affectionate and dutiful Diſpoſitions and Conduct in all the People under our Charge, and to guard them againſt every Thing that may have the leaſt Tendency to beget Diſaffection to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, or to diſturb the Peace of our Country, and your Majeſty's juſt Adminiſtration therein.

We conclude with our hearty Prayers to Almighty God, that he may beſtow and continue his beſt Bleſſings upon your Majeſty, your Royal Conſort the Queen, their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, the Royal Infant, and all all the reſt of your auguſt and illuſtrious Family; & that their Royal Highneſſes may be preſerved, and their Marriage bleſs'd with a further further Increaſe of your Royal Offspring, the better to ſecure and perpetuate the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's Reign to lateſt Poſterity: Theſe are the ſincere and fervent Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt dutiful, and moſt obedient Subjects,
The Miniſters and Elders, Commiſſioners of the late General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland.

Sign'd in our Preſence, in our Name, and at our Appointment, by LAUGHLAN MACINTOSH, Moderator.

LONDON, October 13.

Extract of a Letter from M. de la Garda, Capt. of a French Eaſt-India Ship, who had Orders from the French Company to go and bombard Mocha.

WE arriv'd in the Road of Mocha the 25th of January, a Time proper for executing the Commiſſion with which I was charg'd: Nevertheleſs we were 15 Days in that Road without doing any thing, except to cannonade the Place, and throw ſome Bombs into it, which only frightned the Women and common People; for the Arabs anſwer'd us from their Batteries in a Manner as gave us to underſtand that ſomething elſe muſt be done to reduce them to Reaſon: In effect, we ſhould have had the ſecond-Beſt of the Diſpute, if I had not found means to make a Deſcent in the South Iſland, and make myſelf Maſter of a Fort there. They did all in their Power to hinder our Landing, but we ſoon forc'd them with the Loſs on our Side of only four Souldiers kill'd, and 12 wounded. It is very viſible that we ſhould have loſt a great many more, had the Arabs known how to fire on us; they loſt near 80 Men in the Action, which frighten'd them to ſuch a Degree, that they immediately came to Terms with us, as highly advantageous to our Trade as it is honourable to our Nation." The Cauſe of the Quarrel was thus; the Arabs pretended to make the French Eaſt-India Company pay higher Duties on their Goods than formerly; they would alſo raiſe the Price of Coffee and other Goods which the French uſed to take in there; they exacted other Things which had never been practis'd before, and they even inſulted the Company's Factors and Officers. As the French make it a laudable Maxim of their Government never to ſuffer themſelves to be inſulted by any Nation whatever, eſpecially in that tender and important Article call'd Trade, they ſent four large Ships to procure that Juſtice and Satisfaction which they found fair Means could not obtain, and, to their eternal Honour, a triumphant Satisfaction they have had. They have ſet us a noble and ſhining Example, and if we have Bravery and Honeſty to follow it, we need not doubt of making the Spaniards pay dearly for their Inſolence in plundering our Merchants 20 Years together.

Extract of a Letter from Vienna, Dated Octob. 6.

The Body of Ottoman Troops commanded by Count Bonneval and Prince Ragotski, is enter'd into Walachia and Moldavia, and has oblig'd the Imperialiſts to abandon ſome Poſts they poſſeſs'd in thoſe two Provinces The Emperor's Troops have nevertheleſs had the good Fortune to defeat ſeveral Turkiſh Detachments in their Retreat. We have a Report that the Velt-Marſhal Count Wallis, who commanded in Walachia, is dead there.
